

Order My Steps

Psalm 18:36-Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip
(KJV)

The Psalms offer wisdom for believers seeking the path to the Kingdom of God. Guidance exists in the Psalms to remain on the narrow path to God's Kingdom. By looking to the Psalms, the believers choose wisdom proven through the ages. Hearty nourishment for the body, mind and soul is bountiful in the Psalms. The believer's steps toward God's Kingdom must remain on the narrow path.

Psalm 56:6-They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul. (KJV)

Believers need to know where to firmly plant their steps in their journey. Dangers to the soul are prevalent throughout life's journey to the Kingdom. Evil lurks in many unsuspecting locations as the believer journeys forward. Turning to the Lord God's proven Scriptures uncovers the firm ground for travel. The Psalms have a way of shedding light in times of darkness during the journey.

Psalm 57:6-They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah. (KJV)

God is ever-present to protect the traveler to the Kingdom seeking the narrow way. The Psalms serve to clear the path of hurdles and challenges that deter the believer. Like a sharpened sword, the Psalms cut through the poisonous growth on the path. Believers' footsteps rooted in the Psalms gain strength from the firm foundation. Taking firm steps in hope is necessary if the Kingdom of God is the desired goal.

Psalm 73:2-But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped (KJV)

Believers seeking the Kingdom need God's assistance throughout the journey. When a believer takes a wrong path or falls, is necessary to repent and begin again. God is within reach to welcome the lost traveler in this world full of perils. God's healing and forgiving love serves as the basis for hope for all who are lost. When a believer is deep in the ditch of sin, God offers a helping hand to grasp.

Psalm 119:133-Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me. (KJV)

The directions for traveling to God's Kingdom exist in the Holy Scriptures. God's Holy Church provides the illuminated path to the Heavenly Kingdom. The Lord reveals to attentive believers the narrow path to travel in daily life. When God fills the heart, mind and soul, God guides the traveler on the path. God orders the steps of faithful believers from the time of Holy Baptism.
