Eyes

Psalm 15/16:8- I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With Him at my right hand, I will not be shaken. KJV)

Keeping focused on the Lord ensures the believer is traveling to the Kingdom.
Perils arise on the path from the Baptismal font to God's Kingdom and life eternal.
Believers must always be searching the path for unexpected dangers to the soul.
Eyes sharply focused enable the believer to see hidden points of harm to the soul.
The believer's eyes serve as guides in the soul's salvation and to give God glory.
The eyes view the horizon and facilitate the assessment of the path forward to take.

Psalm 16/17:2-Let my vindication come from you; may your eyes see what is right. (KJV)

Determining the right path to take requires careful thinking and discernment.
God provides teachings in the Church as guidance for the eyes to fully consider.
Signs directing the journey to God's Kingdom appear to those with attentive eyes.
God's eyes see all that believers do including all which appears in their hearts.
Humility has a place in the believer's life and is recognized in the eyes of God.
Individuals with haughty eyes are also within the vision of the All-Seeing God.

Psalm 17/18:27-You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty. (KJV)

The Lord sees deep into the soul and the true extent of each person's belief.
Those with humble hearts view God's creation with great wonder and appreciation.
The personal view of life reveals the depth of faith and degree of love for God.
Seeing life filled with joy and hope arises from the believer's strong love for God.
The Light of Christ is visible to the firm believer even in life's darkest moments.
Hunger in the soul motivates the believer's eyes to search for Divine nourishment.

Psalm 18/19:8-The precepts of the Lord are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the Lord are radiant, giving light to the eyes. (KJV)

Eyes locked into focusing on the Kingdom of God affect personal demeanor.
Temptations fail to lure the believer whose eyes are focused on the Kingdom.
God's Kingdom and eternal life are the primary focus of serious believers.
Having eyes to see God's presence in Creation is a never-ending blessing.
Viewing the image and likeness of God in each person is ideal use of the eyes.
Keeping the eye on God in every aspect of life facilitates spiritual growth